We Believe

That you have the right to decide whether and when to bear a child.

That you should be fully informed about all of your options: parenthood, adoption, and abortion.

That your reproductive life should not be subject to pressure or interference from anyone.

We Support

Your personal and spiritual freedom to make a choice that is consistent with your religious and ethical beliefs.

Your ability to make thoughtful, healthy, moral decisions.

We Provide

Free Counseling

Our specially trained counselors are clergy and people of faith: Jewish, Unitarian-Universalist, Protestant Christian, Catholic, Buddhist, and Muslim. Even if you are of no particular religious faith, you are equally welcome to receive our services.

An All-Options Approach

Our counselors will not burden you with moral judgments about your pregnancy or choices. The counselor will listen to your needs and concerns, will help you explore all possible choices, and will honor your decision. We want to offer you an opportunity for candid dialogue about your experience and provide the support you need to move forward in a healthy way.

Confidentiality

Religious counselors have a spiritual and professional obligation to your confidentiality. Our counselors will respect your personal privacy.
